U.S. Gas & Electric, Inc. Partners with greencents™ to Launch Energy Efficiency Program

June 16, 2017– Miramar, FL – U.S. Gas & Electric, Inc. (“USG&E”), a national retail energy supplier operating in eleven states and the District of Columbia, proudly announces the launch of its Simply Green program featuring greencents™. USG&E provides energy products and services to nearly 250,000 customers across the U.S. and offers a variety of value-added energy products. In addition to USG&E Rewards, which provides qualified customers exceptional rewards each and every month, customers now have the opportunity to benefit from the latest in energy-efficiency technology and information provided by USG&E’s Simply Green program.

USG&E is committed to offering exceptional value to its customers. Greencents™ is one of several new initiatives USG&E is launching to provide its customers opportunities to lower their energy usage through innovative products. As a leading-edge energy efficiency program, Simply Green featuring greencents™, by providing LED light bulbs and an online personalized energy advisor, encourages customers to save money by lowering their energy usage, while improving their homes and contributing to saving the environment.

The greencents™ online energy advisor provides options for customers to save hundreds of dollars per year by becoming more energy efficient. LED lighting is an easily implemented change to reduce energy usage, and is provided as part of the Simply Green program.

Kevin McMinn, USG&E’s Chief Operating Officer stated, “USG&E is committed to offering services that add value and improve our customers’ experience. The Simply Green program is a great addition to these services, as it provides our customers the opportunity for savings and reinforces USG&E’s dedication to environmental sustainability.”

“We are pleased to be working closely with USG&E in their goal to deliver more value to their customers, build loyalty and improve the customer journey with our greencents™ program,” said Jeremie Carr, Managing Partner, OpSolve, LLC. “Working closely with the whole USG&E team has been great for our company and we appreciate their dedication to the vision of delivering a highly-valued service to their customers. The greencents™ campaign is the next step in the evolution of the retail energy industry and addresses the core concept of energy deregulation, which is to deliver additional value to customers. We know USG&E will be very successful in their program to build better, long-term relationships with more customers nationwide.”
